

The Connelly-McKinley Promise

Connelly-McKinley is a fourth-generation family-owned and operated funeral home; committed to being compassionate, understanding and professional. Our family has been serving the Edmonton community and surrounding areas since 1908.

We are uniquely qualified to help meet your family's specific needs -- and to handle your wishes flawlessly, down to the smallest detail. Because we are family owned, we are proud to serve and work like a family. You will find our people caring, capable and professional.

For more than 100 years, Connelly-McKinley Funeral Homes has been committed to compassionately serve the families who trust their loved ones to our care.

We listen to your family's needs and then provide customized services to fulfill those needs.
